Devotions March 2019

A young man whom I well remember as one of my Physics Pupils now spends most of his time in the African Country Burundi, where he has founded a Christian Missionary group, achieving much wonderful success. Of course I take no credit for that, but nor does he, for the power and the wisdom are of the Holy Spirit. He also tells us that he had, at least once, to run for his life, to avoid serious injury from opponents. Have we as Christians, ever had to do that? Will we ever have to run to survive?

Our Thursday morning House Group, on reading Acts, reminds me that the Apostle Paul had constant threats and some imprisonment, on his missions. God takes care of all His followers, but we should expect problems as well as triumphs, if we ardently serve Him. We aim to make the Gospel, and also its lifetime followers, truly attractive, seeking from Him the right words and the right methods.

Patience and persuasion are needed, but definitely no verbal bullying.

In leaving the current Leaders Team I feel very confident in a group that has Gods blessing, and works so well with the talent He gives them. May God bless our efforts, and those of all the churches in our lovely neighbourhood.

David

Monday Matters March 18th 7.30pm at Mary's home; Roger will be leading, please park on Garage forecourt. This is a discussion group exploring interesting and challenging issues.
